1. I understand I am expected to be present at all activities of my assigned orchestra:
   - Prelude Strings members are expected to participate in all YOL rehearsals, concerts, and the orchestra workshop.
   - Philharmonic Orchestra members are expected to be present at all YOL rehearsals, concerts, the orchestra workshop, and any special engagements.
   - Symphony Orchestra members are expected to be present at all YOL rehearsals, concerts, and the orchestra workshop.

Rehearsal begins at 2:00. It is requested that you arrive fifteen minutes before the start time so you may be in your seat and ready to begin rehearsal. If you arrive fifteen minutes after the rehearsal is scheduled to begin you will be marked as tardy. Three tardies will be counted as an absence. A student with more than two absences will come under review for continued participation in that semester. You must contact your orchestra manager if you will be late or absent. Contact information is on the website.

2. I understand that I will provide my own instrument (with the exception of percussion) for every rehearsal and that my parents and I will be solely responsible for the transportation and safeguarding of that instrument.

3. I understand that my attendance at the Orchestra workshop is required. If there are any problems or conflicts associated with the workshop, I will have my parents submit the details to the orchestra manager.

4. I understand consistent practice of orchestral repertoire is essential to a successful concert. I am willing to commit to practicing the music at home.

5. If my conduct causes problems of a musical or behavioral nature detrimental to the YOL program, I understand I may forfeit my membership and participation in YOL events and activities, without refund of any monies paid. Such actions may be taken only with the full knowledge or the orchestra manager and conductor.
